> GRAVE feers are, entertained as to the safety of the small steamer Carmen, recently built by Messrs Panwick & Co., which left and has not yet been heard of. "It is supposed that she encountered the storm that was raging with other China Sea in the end of fast month, and unless she managed to run into some bay for shelter, there is not much hope of her turning up. There were on board five Spanish officers and about twenty Manila sailors .-There is still no word of the Dubury with her 400 passengers.

Ho Chun, who has been employed in the Hongkong Dispensary for the last six years as an assistant, was arrested on board the steamer Powan yesterday with a quantity of goods in his possession stolen from the Dispensary, amounting in value to $10, He was going off on a holiday when a Chipese constable, who has been keeping a special watch over some of the Chinese employes in the store, 'spotted' him, and on searching his bundle found the stolen articles. Mr J. S. Hagen, who identified the property, said such things had been pilfered exten. sively from the shop of late. He could not asy exactly what the value of the articles stolen within the last half-year would amount to, but it was nearer $1,000 than $100. The prisoner was sentenced to six months hard labour.

Miss ACKERMAN, a delegate of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of America, who has been on a lecturing cour lit Age stralis, addressed a meeting in the Wesleyan Mission Rooms last night on temperance. Rev. G. H. Bondfield presided, and the hall was crowded. Miss Ackerman, who was introduced by the chairman delivered an interesting address, in which she spoke of the origin of the Women's Union and some of the good work it had been able to schome plish in the cause of temperance. The address was listened to with great interest and at the close a cordial vote of thanks was passed to Miss Ackerman on the motion of Rev. T. Turner, seconded by Mr. Tarn. A good many of the audience signed the pledge. Miss Ackerman gives an address this evening in the hall of the Sailors Home, and will deliver another in the City Hall on Sunday evening.

Turns is evidently a want of big maps in the office of our morning contemporary. In support of his contention that Peak residents cannot claim exemption from Peak rates because they pay rates in town he idatances as analogous the case of a resident migrating from Calcutts to Simls claiming exemption in the latter place because he has also paid rates on his house in Calcutta. The writer avidently thinks that Simla is a sort of suburb of Calcutta, ruled by the same Government and the same Municipal Conneil. Now, as every schoolboy conghit. to know, Simia is more than eight hundred miles from Calcutte, and is not only outside the province of Lower Bengal, of which Calcutta is the capital, out is outside the direct jurisdiction of the British Government, being situated in a protected pative state. The Calcutta Municipal Council have absolutely no jurisdiction over Simila. the land there having been lessed or purchased from native chieftains. There is therefore no analogy possible, there being nothing similar in the cases, TRADE BETWEEN CANADA AND BRAZIL Some apprehension exists in Canada that the diplomatic efforts which are being made to develop direct trade between Brazil and the United States will prove detrimental to Canadian trade, and it is arged that the Brazilian deputation which is expected in Washington should be induced to go on to Montreal and confer with the Board of Trade there, or with the Government authorities at Ottawa, It is finderstood says the Montreal Trade Bulletin, that the metter bas been brought to the notice of the Board of Trade, and that the secretary is to correspondence with the British authorities of Washington, to see what steps can be taken towards bringing about the desired conference between the Brazis lian delegates and the Canadian authorities. Canada imports anger direct from Bresil to the amount of about 2,500,000 dole, per year, which has to be point for in hard cash, as Canada has to return trade, although it could export kumber, dried fish, flour, provisions, cotton, and other produce, if the proper means were employed for establishing such an important trade connection. - Financial Chronicle.

the defendant went there, and as she was known to the boy of the house she told him she wanted to lie down in the complainant's room to asleep. She went up to the room, having told the boy before she actually went there that she did not wish to be disturbed and that no noise was to be made in the house. She was not residing there and had no right to the premises whatever, She got fato the house and remained there till about four c'elock servants heard the sound of glass falling to the ground and went to see where it was coming from, and found that all the glass in ties windows of complainant's room had been broken. The head boy had also heard the noise made by the falling glass and he went upsteirs and met the defendant coming out of the room. She would not fall to grant him protection.

The Toung li Yaman was not exactly forced on the Chinese by victorious invaders, but they created the necessity for som thing which had not existed in China before, and the Yamen was the readiest response the Chinese Government could make to the demand. In organic change had to be introduced in the government of this ancient empire. and, disregard ng the universal principle of him through a telephone in Lotsdam. Whether the Chinese comprehended all that this enforced change Mr Wotton-I never heard of such a implied may well be doubted, but whether they did or not, they felt that the man with the pistol in his hand was not to be reasoned with. It seems quite cartain that the foreign representatives who decreed the revolution did not clearly understand what they were doing, and went further astray in estimating the consequences of their act than the Chinese themselves. But they had the big battalions, and their dicta had the effect for the time being of Imperial Edicts. They ruled that all the foreign affairs of China should be regulated in the capital between the Ministers of the Emporor and the His Worship then fixed bail in two Ministers of foreign states; also that all the questions arising out of the intercourse between foreigners and Chinese at the trading ports should equally be settled in Peking.
